INDEX TO THE TEXAS TRANSPORTATION RESEARCHER ISSUES OF 1971 BY SUBJECT AND AUTHOR

A

Airport System Plan and Future Demand Are Objectives of Continuing Research, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 1.

Asphalt Pavement Sample Withstands Submersion in Sea Water, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 8.

B

Benson, J. D., Vergil G. Stover, and Charles Pinnell, Public Attitude Toward Bus Transit in Small Cities, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 11.

Bus Stop Shelters, W. R. Lowery and J. D. Benson, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 3.

Box Beam Guide Rail Safety System Is Tested, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 1.

Bridwell, R. J., Hayes E. Ross, Jr., and R. D. Young, Road-Vehicle-Occupant Interaction Study Uses Computer Graphics, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 8.

Broad Transportation Goals Are Suggested for Engineers, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 1.

Burke, Dock, The Cost of Highway Accidents, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 6.

C

Crash Cushion Modification for Angular Hits Is Tested, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 10.

Consideration of Comprehension Time in Designing Highway Signs, Ronald W. Holder, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 8.

Concrete Researcher Visits Europe in People-to-People Delegation, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 8.

Conversion of Fly Ash to Aggregate Shows Possibilities, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 7.

Computer Program Calculates Bridge Girder Design, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 5.

Computerized Airport Inventory Provides Reference Data for Planning, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 1.

Cost of Highway Accidents, The, Dock Burke, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 6.

D

Driver Inputs for the Design of a Real-Time Freeway Information System, Some, Conrad L. Dudek and Carroll J. Messer, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 3.

Drivers Desire Commercial Radio for Urban Freeway Traffic Information, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 1.

E

Estimating Procedures Give Load Experience for Highways, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 1.

F

Faculty Lecturer Speaks on Roadside Safety Research, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 5.

FHWA Establishes Pilot Test and Evaluation Center at A&M, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 1.

Findings for Better Highways Are Presented at National Meeting, Latest, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 11.

Friction Tests Show Effects of Water Depths for Various Pavement Types, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 1.

H

Hardening of Asphalts by Actinic Light Is ACS Topic, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 2.

Holder, Ronald W., Consideration of Comprehension Time in Designing Highway Signs, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 8.

Highway Beautification and Engineering Achievement Awards Are Presented, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 11.

Highway Noise, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 8.

Highway Materials Researcher Is Honored by Texas A&M, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 5.

Highway Safety Research Leaders Are Chosen, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 2.

Hydroplaning Findings Are Made for Pavements, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 2.

I

Interstate Highway Land Acquisition Study Shows Benefits, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 1.

K

Kiln and Laboratory Facilities Serve in Evaluation of Materials, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 12.

L

Land Acquisition for Controlled Access Highways Benefits Farmers and Ranchers, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 9.

Land Use and Transportation in Access System Is Suggested, Balance of, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 9.

Lowery, W. R., and J. D. Benson, Bus Stop Shelters, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 3.

M

Mass Transportation in Auto Oriented Cities, Eugene Maier, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 3.

Merit Awards Go to THD Engineers of Austin and Port Lavaca, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 10.

Messer, Carroll J., and Conrad L. Dudek, Some Driver Inputs for the Design of a Real-Time Freeway Information System, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 3.

O

Operating Manual for Traffic Projection and Assignment Involving Large Networks Is Published, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 2.

P

Public Attitude Toward Bus Transit in Small Cities, Charles Pinnell, J. D. Benson, Vergil G. Stover, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 11.

R

Rail-Highway Grade Crossing Safety Evaluation Provides Statistical and Economic Data, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 10.

Rail-Highway Grade Crossing Safety Improvements Are Suggested by Team, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 6.

Range Scientists Offer Solutions for Roadside Vegetation Problems, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 7.

Rating System for Highway Maintenance Is Quest of Research, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 2.

Researchers Discuss Offshore Structures and Foundations, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 10.

Road-Vehicle-Occupant Interaction Study Uses Computer Graphics, R. J. Bridwell, Hayes, E. Ross, and R. D. Young, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 8.

Rowan, Neilon J., Enhancement of the Driving Environment Through High-Mast Roadway Lighting, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 3.

S

Safety Researcher Is Named the Outstanding Young Engineer by TSPE, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 2.

Seasonal Strength Variations of Flexible Pavements Warrant Attention, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 2.

Soil Stabilization Research Involves Polyester Runways for Aircraft, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 5.

Sources and Measurement of Highway Noise, Murray F. Young and Donald L. Woods, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 6.

Stress to Strain Relationship for Granular Material Is Sought, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 9.

Stover, Vergil G., J. D. Benson, and Charles Pinnell, Public Attitude Toward Bus Transit in Small Cities, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 11.

Structural Research Leader Receives Engineer of the Year Award from TSPE, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 1

Traffic Projection and Assignment Manual Is Produced, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 2.

Transportation Policy Is Discussed by Officials of Agencies and Carriers, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 7.

Texas A&M Directors Recognize TTI for Highway Safety Developments, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 2.

U

V

Vehicle-Pedestrian Accident Study Involves Computerized Simulation, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 10.

Vehicle-Roadway Interaction and Traffic Operation Are Discussed, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 7.

Vehicular Traffic Noise Levels for Human Tolerance Are Sought, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 8.

W

Waco Transit Study Is Made, Volume 7, No. 3, Page 9.

Waterproofing Materials for Bridge Decks Are Evaluated in Tests, Volume 7, No. 4, Page 10.

Woods, Donald L., and Young, Murray F., Sources and Measurement of Highway Noise, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 6.

Y

Young, Murray, and Donald L. Woods, Sources and Measurement of Highway Noise, Volume 7, No. 1, Page 6.

Young, R. D., R. J. Bridwell, and Hayes E. Ross, Jr., Road-Vehicle-Occupant Interaction Study Uses Computer Graphics, Volume 7, No. 2, Page 8.
